Valeriy Slastikov (Bristol)

Point defects in 2D liquid crystals

Abstract

We study a class of symmetric critical points in a variational 2D Landau–de Gennes model for nematic liquid crystals. These critical points play the role of topological point defects. We investigate stability and qualitative properties of these symmetric solutions.